

C.V. Prof. Manuela Uhl

Manuela Uhl studied in Salzburg and Zurich. Soon the soprano was a constant guest at international concert podiums. She has performed with orchestras such as the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, the Orchestra of the Academy of Santa Cecilia, the Berlin Philharmonic, the Simón Bolívar Symphony Orchestra of Venezuela, the Gewandhaus Orchestra Leipzig, the Sinfonica di Milano Giuseppe Verdi and the New Japan Philharmonic Tokyo, the Accademia di Santa Cecilia in Rome, the Suntoryhall Tokyo, the Disney Hall Los Angeles, the concert hall in the Forbidden City of Beijing, the Golden Hall Vienna, the Cultural Center Hong Kong, the Gasteig Munich and many more. Since 2011, after many years of permanent engagement at the Deutsche Oper Berlin, she now performs independently and is one of the most sought-after interpreters of the works of Strauss and Wagner internationally. Worldwide, she sings the great soprano roles of the youthful-dramatic discipline.

Renowned conductors such as Thielemann, Chailly, Pappano, Dudamel, Nagano, Bychkov, de Burgos, Weigle and Cobos regularly work with her in Berlin, Munich, Dresden, Buenos Aires, Madrid, Copenhagen, Hong Kong, Budapest, Vienna, Amsterdam and Tokyo.

She has been heard on a great number of radio and television broadcasts and has published numerous CDs and DVDs.

Manuela Uhl has been a professor at the MHL since 2014.
