

Martin Hellström was educated at the Edsberg Institute of Music graduating with a diploma in chamber music in 2000. He also studied with Prof. Jiri Hlinka at the School of Music Luleå University and at the Master programme for Répétiteurs at the University College of Opera, Stockholm.

He has attended masterclasses with Prof. Dorothy Irving, Prof. Eero Heinonen, Prof. Liisa Pohjola, The Britten Quartet and many others.

In 2002, Martin won the Swedish chamber music society's competition for Lied duos with the mezzo Hillevi Berg.

Martin has worked as a freelance pianist and operatic coach, cooperating with both singers and instrumentalists in for chamber music, as well as working as a répétiteur and operatic coach in over twenty opera productions. He is currently holds a position at the University College of Opera, Stockholm.